Conewago Township

Adams County, Pennsylvania

A look at what has happened this year and what is coming through December.

From the Board

The Board of Supervisors (BOS) adopted a 2026 budget of $3,453,301 with no township tax increase, using reserve funds to maintain services. Work is now underway on the 2027 budget. Residents are welcome to follow that process at upcoming Board workshops and regular meetings.

Chief John C. Migatulski began serving in January. Waste Management remains the township hauler under a 2026–2029 contract. Work continues on the (PennDOT) Eisenhower Drive Extension, including a roundabout agreement and related traffic-signal plans. Staff also reported that township funds are in place for Conewago's share of Plum Creek Rec Park work with the Army Corps of Engineers.

ADAMS COUNTY IS A PENNSYLVANIA SHOWCASE COUNTY FOR AMERICA 250.
